Good Citizen Dies After Short Illness.

As we go to press early Thursday morning we received the sad news that J. Howard Jackson had died at his home on Gainesboro, R.2, Wednesday night at 9 o'clock, following a brief illness of pneumonia. Mr. Jackson is one of the county's best citizens and his death will be the cause of much sadness throughout the county. He is survived by his wife and five children. The bereaved family have the sympathy of all.

Let Your Light Shine.

That's what Gainesboro is preparing to do, and the time is not far off when our little village will be glittering with electricity.

Will McCawley county agent for the Delco Light Co., assisted by D. B. Johnson, local attorney, called on a number of the citizens of the town one day last week and raised by subscription, $2,800.00 for the purpose of installing an electric light plant here.

The plant will have sufficient power to light all the streets, business houses and dwellings in town, and has already been ordered shipped.

The town has long been in need of a good light plant, and we feel like taking off our hats to Mr. McCawley for putting the thing through.

A. M. Pate Guest of Parents.

A. M. Pate and little son, A. M. Jr., of Fort Worth, Texas, arrived in Gainesboro Tuesday, and will be the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Pate for the next two weeks.

Mr. Pate is vice president and sales manager of the Panther Grease Mfg. Co., of Ft. Worth, which was organized six months ago. Mr. Pate is very optimistic as to the future success of the concern, and says he sees no reason why it should not be a paying proposition in a short time. Prior to his connection with this enterprise he traveled for a number of years for the Oriental Oil Co., and is thoroughly acquainted with the business. His brother, I. B. Pate, of this place, is also a stockholder in the concern.

TO SANTA CLAUS.

Dear Santa:

I am a little boy and would like for you to bring me some candy and apples and some nice little toys. I will give you a nice cake when you come. I am going to hang up my stocking and look for you, be sure and come. Good by.

James Clacie Crowder, Haydenburg, Tenn.

Dear Santa:

I am a little boy 5 years old, and live in the Gibson hollow. I go to school some times and am a good boy. I want a wagon, shot gun, a dog and a lot of nice fruit, nuts and candy. Don't forget dady and mother, they are looking for you too. Will close as I am expecting to see you soon.

Willard Bowman, Gainesboro, Tenn.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks to our friends for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our dear husband and father.

Mrs. Vona Chaffin and Children, Gainesboro, R-3.

LODGE ELECTS OFFICERS.

Tannehill Lodge No. 133 F. & A. M., elected the following officers to serve for the year 1923. They were duly elected and installed Dec. 16th, 1922:

J. B. Anderson, W. M.; Harry L. Page, S. W.; John C. Sadler, J. W.; Henry P. Loftis, Secretary; J. L. McCawley, Treasurer; W. H. Byrne, S. D.; H. Ridley Draper, J. D.; J. C. Reeves, Tyler; L. M. Botts, Chaplin; B. L. Quarles, Jr., Sr. Steward; John W. Reeves, Jr. Steward.

John H. Stafford is on the sick list.

Flavy Pate, of Ft. Worth, Texas, arrived Wednesday to spend the holidays with his parents.

Misses Merriam and Tom Quarles will arrive home this week from Peabody College, Nashville.

January Term of Co., Court

The January term of Quarterly County Court will convene here Monday, Jan. 1st, 1923, at which time a county chairman and a superintendent of schools for the county, will be elected.

G. L. Dudney, the present chairman of the court, has announced that he will not be a candidate to succeed himself. The only announced candidates for the place are E. F. McCain, of Whitleyville, and R. A. Montgomery, of Gainesboro, both of whom, are well known and highly esteemed citizens, and competent to look after the county's interest. Mr. Dudney, who has served only one term as chairman, goes out with a clean record. He has made a faithful chairman, and his term in office has been satisfactory to all.

For the office of superintendent of schools, there are three candidates: Miss Estelle Gailbreath, present incumbent; L. M. Botts, local attorney; and Pro W. L. Dixon, of Gladdico. As to who will be the choice of the honorable court, would be a mere guess in the dark with us. Knowing the candidates as we do, either of the three will fill the position. They are popular and qualified, and the contest is expected to be close.

G. C. Huffines, with the Louisville Furnishing Goods Company, of Louisville, Ky., was calling on the local merchants Wednesday. Mr. Huffine has only been with this firm two months, and reports a flourish business. If you need any Ladies' and men's furnishing goods, Mr. Merchant, get in touch with the above mentioned traveler.

Make Golden Rule 1923 Standard

A practical New Year's resolution which every citizen, young or old, high or low, may make for his own good, the good of town, county, state and nation, is given in the January number of McCall's Magazine by Mrs. Gene Stratton Porter, whose novels, "Laddie," "A Girl of the Limberlost," "Freckles," and many others have endeared her to the hearts of the American reading public the country over.

"First of all," writes Mrs. Stratton Porter, "I have no faith in the efficiency of a Godless nation. Any nation (or person) that forgets God is headed toward rapid disaster. If all of us would seriously and earnestly strive this New Year's time to renew the love of God in our own hearts, to follow the simple, pure teachings of Jesus Christ in our daily lives, it would result in a movement to uplift that would immediately be perceptible throughout the nation. If we would truly try with all our might to 'love our neighbor as ourselves,' if we would honestly practise the good old stunt of 'doing as we would be done by,' just one-half the present labor troubles and social unrest would vanish like mist before a compelling sun. It would simply cease to exist.

"Next in importance to God in the life of a nation it is in my heart to exalt the home. The coming year I propose that all of us join in a preconcerted effort to make our homes the best, the finest, the safest, the happiest places on earth. Suppose that we make them as beautiful as lies within our means and our power. Suppose that we open our doors wide for the entertainment of our children and our friends. Suppose that we ask God to come in and be our most honored guest throughout the year. If all of us will do this in a serious and a preconcerted way, I am sure that another large slice of trouble will disappear forever.

"A big movement forward could be made if each man and woman of our land would stand staunch by our lawmakers. Since he is in office and he ours, let each of us do all that we can to hold up the hands of our President. I propose that we all hope for him, pray for him; and let us go further, and uphold every man that we have placed in a position of power (when does his duty.) We can all help toward ending the present period of lawlessness by each of us chivalrously obeying the spirit and the letter of the laws by which we are supposed to be governed.

"To sum up, let all of us push forward in unison this year in a strong, steady sweep for righteousness, for HOME, for NATIVE LAND. Let's make this one shining year of the biggest things that ever happened in our loved country!"

What a happy and prosperous year it will be for Gainesboro and Jackson County, if we, as citizens will make these resolutions and live by them. If is not impossible. The Golden Rule can be carried out in our ever day life, if we will let God help us. If nothing is attempted, there will be nothing done. Will we resolve that during 1923 we will with God's help endeavor to live the Golden Rule. Take God at his word and see if He will not bless this country beyond what we expect.
